

Australian Government

The Treasury

Salary

$ 93312 to $ 99287

Opportunity Type

Full-Time;Part-Time

Opportunity Status

Ongoing;Non-Ongoing

Opportunity Employment Type

Specified Term

Opportunity Employment Type Details

Non-ongoing opportunities will be offered a specified term for up to 12 months.

APS Classification

APS Level 5

Position Reference

Several Positions

Closing Date

21/06/2026

Job Category

Economics, Statistics

Office Arrangement

Flexible

Department of the Treasury

APS5 Analysts

📍 Canberra ACT, Melbourne VIC, Sydney NSW

Macroeconomic Conditions and Population Division (MCPD) is seeking applications from highly motivated Analysts with specialist skills and experience in macroeconomic frameworks, and economic and/or demographic forecasting and modelling, to join the Division.

- The Macroeconomy Branch maintains an overall view of economic developments across the economy, including the macroeconomic forecasts, and monitors developments in inflation and the labour market.
- The Domestic Demand, International and Trade Branch is responsible for analysing domestic demand and international economic activity, financial markets and Australia's international trade conditions, contributing to the domestic and international forecasts.
- The Centre for Population Branch is responsible for forecasting demographic trends, and providing the data and analysis to inform policy development (including annual publication of the Population Statement).

The key duties of the position include:

There are positions available across the division, including in the following units:

- Domestic Demand Unit: Provides reporting and analysis on the current and near-term domestic economic outlook, including to inform the forecasts and National Accounts now-casting.
- International, Financial and Commodities Unit: Forecasts and provides advice on global economic and financial market conditions, with a focus on Australia's major trading partners and issues of direct relevance to the Australian economy.
- Prices, Wages and Labour Unit: Responsible for monitoring, analysing and forecasting labour market conditions and domestic consumer prices.
- Central Forecasting Unit: Responsible for applying a whole-of-economy view to Treasury's macroeconomic forecasting and advice, including maintaining the department's central macroeconomic forecasting model.
- Migration Modelling and Analysis Unit: Forecasts net overseas migration and provides analysis on migration policy.

- Modelling and Forecasting Unit: Responsible for population forecasts and analysis at the national and state & territory levels.

Desirable Skills / Experience

Successful candidates will possess tertiary qualifications in a relevant field, including, but not limited to, economics, data science, actuarial studies and demography. They will also have experience with economic forecasting, macroeconomic and microeconomic modelling frameworks, econometric techniques and/or demographic forecasting and modelling.

At the APS5 classification, successful candidates will possess one or more of the following skills, candidates should keep in mind that we are seeking a range of complimentary skill sets:

- Ability to engage with technical material and communicate it clearly and succinctly to a broad range of stakeholders.
- Strong project management skills and the ability operate proactively and collaboratively in a fast-paced and changing environment.
- Strong teamwork skills, including the ability to build and maintain effective working relationships within and across different teams.
- At least two to three years' relevant work experience.

Eligibility

Under Section 22(8) of the Public Service Act 1999, employees of the Treasury are required to be Australian Citizens.

Successful candidates will be required to obtain and maintain, at a minimum, a Baseline security clearance, and will be subject to pre-employment screening checks.

Some positions may require a higher level of clearance, as specified in the position description.

Notes

This recruitment process is being used to fill an ongoing position. A merit pool may be established to fill future ongoing or non-ongoing positions, should they become available within 18 months from the date advertised.

RecruitAbility applies to this vacancy. Under the RecruitAbility scheme you will be invited to participate in further assessment activity for the vacancy if you choose to apply under the scheme; declare you have a disability; and meet the minimum requirements for the job. For more information visit: <https://www.apsc.gov.au/recruitability>. This initiative/program is only applicable where the successful applicant will be employed under the Public Service Act 1999. Similar conditions may apply when employed under other Acts. For clarification please contact the advertising agency.

Contact Officer

Freya Carlton

Contact Phone

02 6263 3509

Agency Employment Act

PS Act 1999

Website

Department of the Treasury

Position Number

14-2026

Vacancy Number

VN-0769904

Getting to know the Department of the Treasury

The Treasury is a respected and influential central economic agency. We provide authoritative advice and analysis to the Australian Government on a broad range of economic, fiscal, structural, financial and tax policy issues. We also monitor global economic conditions to make sure Australia is well placed to respond to emerging trends.

Treasury provides some of the best opportunities in the public service. Treasury presents a challenging and rewarding career with the opportunity to contribute substantially to Government policy that affects all Australians. The Treasury's staff are drawn from many professions representing diversity in experience and skills. We seek passionate staff who will work collaboratively to deliver the ideas and advice that will help Australia meet the challenges of the coming years.

Treasury offers attractive salaries and employer superannuation as well as a range of other benefits, including generous leave entitlements, salary packaging and a closedown period over the Christmas holiday.

The Treasury is a flexible, dynamic and diverse workplace with offices in Canberra, Sydney, Melbourne and Perth.

Learn More